Wyoming County Selects Total Enforcement for E 9-1-1 Center

MELVILLE, NY, OCTOBER 17, 2008: Total Computer Group, a leading provider of public safety software solutions, is pleased to announce that Wyoming County, Pennsylvania has selected Total Enforcement™ to facilitate Emergency dispatch for their brand new, state-of-the-art E 9-1-1 Center. After screening numerous candidates, Wyoming County determined that Total Enforcement, with its robust Computer Aided Dispatch System, was best equipped to handle the public safety needs of their officers and citizens.

Total Enforcement, created by Total Computer, is one of a select few enterprise-level systems that fully leverages Microsoft's next-generation .NET framework. Microsoft's revolutionary .NET platform is the perfect foundation for a superior RMS/CAD system for law enforcement.

Wyoming County, PA contains 23 municipalities, 18 Townships, and 5 Boroughs. Total's system will seamlessly link all departments county-wide, providing for maximum inter-agency operability.

Total Enforcement continues its prolific growth. In the past 90 days alone, Total's scope of coverage has expanded to include four new states and three new countries.
